Findings:

Counsel for the appellant has submitted a brief, and a supplemental letter, to serve as the perfected appeal. For the reason mentioned below, only one issue raised will be addressed:

One of appellant's claims is the Board did not review his sentencing minutes.

In response, appellant is correct the Board did not have them at the interview. The Board now has them. As such, a de novo interview may be held.

Recommendation:

Accordingly, it is recommended the decision of the Board be vacated, and a de novo Parole Board Release Interview in front of a different panel be held forthwith.
